Who

What

Where

Why

When

Science Current Event. Use the space below to write the first paragraph of your summary. Us the information you gathered in the organizer.

How?

How will this article impact the world? What is the practical application of this article? What affects will the subject of this article have? What action needs to be taken as a result of this article? Why should we care about this article?